

Richard Addison Charitable Trust

Application form

Isles of Scilly Charitable Trust

Registered charity number: 207551

The Isles of Scilly Charitable Trust (IOSCT) was formed in July 2022 by the merger of the Edward McDonald Trust and the Pilots Widows Fund.

The Edward McDonald Trust was established in the late 1940s from the estate of a St Mary's banker while the Pilots Widows Fund could trace its origins to a public collection taken up after a 'calamity at sea' in the late eighteenth century.

The charitable purposes of the IOSCT are drawn in extremely broad terms. General funds may be applied 'for such charitable institutions, organisations or purposes within the Isles of Scilly as the trustees think fit'.

In addition to general funds, the IOSCT also has a restricted fund (inherited from the Pilots Widows Fund) to be used for charitable purposes associated with maritime endeavours on the islands.

Richard Addison Charitable Trust

Registered charity number: 1014632

Richard Addison (1895-1979) was a St Mary's flower grower and the son of Dr William Addison (1863-1949) who was a medical practitioner on the islands.

In his will, Richard left half his estate to generate an income to be expended by the Council of the Isles of Scilly 'on welfare purposes... in particular for the benefit of the old folks of the islands'.

The Council set up an independent charitable trust to administer the funds in 1994.

Further information

Further information about the two charities (i.e. their annual reports, statements of purpose and privacy notices) may be found at:

www.scilly.gov.uk/charitable-trusts

Name:

.....

Organisation (if applicable):

.....

.....

Address:

.....

.....

.....

.....

Email:

.....

Telephone:

.....

If this application contains information regarding the personal circumstances of another person (or other people), please tick this box to confirm you have obtained their consent for sharing this information with us

How much are you applying for?

.....

What will the grant be used for?

.....

.....

.....

What are the ages of the principal beneficiaries?

This will allow us to determine which of the two charities would be best placed to consider your application

.....

.....

.....

What are your total project costs (if applicable)?

.....

.....

.....

How are you going to finance the rest of the project costs (if applicable), e.g. funding from other sources, direct contributions, funding from reserves?

.....

.....

.....

What safeguarding arrangements do you have in place for children and vulnerable adults (if applicable)?

.....

.....

.....

Is there anything else you would like to tell us?

.....

.....

.....

Signature:

.....

Date:

.....

To submit an application, please return this form to Joseph Payne at joseph.payne@scilly.gov.uk or at the Town Hall, St Mary's, TR21 0LW