

“Lovely Carnweathers”

Reviewed 25 June 2008

This year will be our third visit to Carnweathers Joyce the owner is a lovely lady and makes you feel so at home you don't want to leave. We stay in one of the lovely cottages attached to the main house, our cottage is called the secret garden which it is. There is a shared pool and a bbq area and various gardens to sit and relax in. Pelistry Bay is 10 min walk down a leafy lane and the local bus stops at the end of the road to Carnweathers. There are also many lovely walks from the cottage. It is about 1. 1/2 miles from Hugh Town but on St Mary's nothing is very far away.

“Paradise in England”

Reviewed 17 May 2010

What a VERY special find Carnwethers Country House is! We had the most amazing time celebrating our 2nd wedding anniversary, Louise even suprised us with a bottle of bubbly, which was such a lovely touch. The weather was incredible and the beach which is a stones throw away from the House was stunning. Nothing was too much trouble, although it was a bit too fresh to go for a swim, the pool looked lovely set amongst the beautiful gardens.

If you're looking for a weeks stay away in this part of UK which is simply paradise on earth then stay at Carnwethers. It's a lovely wander into St Mary's town where you can catch all the boats to the surrounding islands. Can't recommend this place enough :)

“The Secret Garden”

Reviewed 4 October 2011

We have had the perfect holiday.

Our accommodation was clean, and welcoming. It was secluded, but near the beautiful beach.

Louise was so welcoming, and we just loved the gardens, and the pool. I would recommend this holiday to couples, and families who enjoy the open air, and a simple life.

“Small but perfectly formed”

Reviewed 12 July 2016

We stayed in the 2 bed Secret Garden, which was the perfect size. There's a little kitchen, with plenty of utensils, little bathroom with a fierce shower and a good size bedroom and living area. It was clean and well looked after and our host was brilliant. We were left with fresh eggs and marmalade and Louise gave us loads of information about the island.

Carnwethers is not in the main town but is out at Pelistry Bay, a beautiful place. It's only a 20 min bike ride from Hugh Town but there is a bus stop on the road and the taxi service is great.

I'd really recommend a stay here, there's also a sauna and a pool, but it was a bit chilly for that while we were there.

“Had a lovely time”

Reviewed 11 August 2015 via mobile

We spent a week in the lovely Secret Garden. The apartment is tastefully appointed with "nice" touches such as fresh flowers in the room.

The proprietors were very friendly and helpful.

The location is perfect for beautiful Pelistry Bay and beach.

We did find ourselves going backwards and forwards to Hugh Town to eat out or for the island ferries.

We also used our stay here as a base to visit the superb Tresco

Gardens.

The walk to Hugh Town and ferries took us 30 to 40 minutes; a bus or taxi is £4 or £5 each way for two people. Carnwethers has a buggy, which might need booking, and which we used once for an island tour. Then you can cycle, which would probably be the best way to travel. However we often relaxed in the apartment's own secret garden, and by the pool, as well as enjoying a splendid coastal walk to the Old Town. In all we had a lovely time.

“Beautiful location, wonderful place to stay”

Reviewed 12 April 2015

My husband and I, and our lively three young children, loved staying at Poolside. Greeted warmly on arrival by Louise, we felt immediately welcome. Delicious home baking and homemade jam waiting on the table, the clean, spacious and easy to live in apartment was a home from home.

Our children loved feeding the doves and ducks in the beautiful enclosed gardens and enjoyed visiting the games room.

Picturesque Pelistry Bay is 3 minutes walk down the hill. We saw seals most days and explored the beach for hours, watching the birds and looking out to the other islands beyond.

Wonderful in every way, highly recommended.

“Magic Carnwethers”

Reviewed 20 July 2013

What a wonderful place set close to possibly the best beach on St Marys. We stayed in the Poolside and it could not have been more perfect. The pool table in the games room is also one of the best you will find then there was croquet, table tennis and a host of games to play when we had some spare time. Louis was a generous and welcoming host and helped make it a fun packed week. Just perfect for a week of relaxation.

“Little piece of heaven”

Reviewed 10 April 2015

We stayed at Poolside in August 2014 and had the most wonderful stay. The cottage is beautifully decorated and clean and airy the bed was huge and comfortable. The kitchen was fully equipped with everything you need and the touch of fresh flowers and marmalade when you arrived was lovely. Louise the owner was very welcoming and was happy to help with any questions.

The pool is great and for the most of the time we had it to ourselves which felt very luxurious when the sun was shining.

We walked everywhere, although the hire of the golf cart is great when you need groceries as you are 'up country'. We also spent a day on Tresco with it's amazing beaches, you have to see them to believe the colours and the gardens were fabulous. another great day was had in St Agnes, I will never forget sitting outside the Turks Head with a drink in the sunshine listening to the Rough Island Band- heaven !

We fell in love with Carnwethers, Pelistry Beach, St Marys and the islands and can see why people come back year after year and why it's so difficult to find a place to book.
