Dear Sir,

I would be grateful if you would consider an alteration of a planning condition relating to our holiday flats (Prospect House Flats). They have been occupied as self catering accommodation for 15 years from April through to October.

As I am fast approaching 70 years of age although having no plans (or desire) to retire just yet, we would like the flexibility of trading for 12 months especially if we pass the running of the flats to a third party.

I look forward to hearing from you.

Peter Thompson
