Dear Sirs

In response to the alterations to the above applications, I can see very little difference in the proposed height of the building. My main objection was to the addition of an extra storey to the building, and as this is still proposed, my objection still stands.

As I said in my previous letter, I have no objection to the redevelopment of the site (In fact I would be pleased to see something done to the rapidly deteriorating exterior) but only as the building is at present and not any bigger or higher.

Yours sincerely

(Mrs Carol Woodcock)
