Dear sirs,

I have previously sent in a comment on the plans for the new Museum Cultural Centre but wish to add further. Surely the provision of a cafe should only be accessed via the Museum itself and should not be a Public facility which surely will impound on the existing cafes, especially as the plans are for a 30 seat cafe which is probably larger than the existing ones.

The Museum is a charity and will incur far lower operating costs as presumably as was the case for the previous museum it will only have a peppercorn rent or at least heavily reduced.

I wish there therefor to object to the present plans.

With Regards
