Hi,
I am writing this email to show my support for Lilly's takeaway on Holgates Green. As a family who of 5 who often like a spontaneous meal out often find the restaurants full or takeaways with a big wait or queue. It's lovely having another option that isn't just fish and chips. It's also a lovely spot for the kids to run a round while we eat. I am disappointed to hear it may be closed down, this would be such a shame as st Mary could do with more evening eateries.
