Planning application: P/22/056/COU

Dear Planning Officer,

As a first-time visitor to St Marys I was delighted to spend time in Hughtown and enjoy the environment, including spending time on Holgates Green overlooking Town Beach and surrounded by remarkable buildings.

I was amazed to find a takeaway van on Holgates Green, rather than in more normal locations such as the car park next to Porthcressa Beach. Upon finding out that this is not authorised yet and is under planning, I decided to write to you and object.

I am a professional architect and I spend most of my time trying to enhance the environment for people. The open space, fresh air, peace and quiet and beautiful views that Holgates Green has should not be compromised. I have found out that Holgates Green is a Recreational Site, therefore, this Planning Application is not appropriate.

Kind regards,

Shaun Killa
