Dear Sirs/Madams,

I am writing to you as I want to show my support for the business venture that is Lily's Thai Takeaway Van.

It is fantastic to see that not only a female entrepreneur has worked hard to turned their passion into their job, but that the island now has a new business that provides us with an opportunity to enjoy the tastiest of Thai cuisine; something I don't believe you can get anywhere else on the Scillies.

Holgates Green is the perfect location, just on the bustling main village road, so that tourists on the look out for dinner venues can find their meal without faff, and so that those visiting the Van also have direct access to the public benches, toilets and bins.

To add to this, as a local vegan, knowing Lily's is there providing a interesting veggie option, I'm more likely to visit St. Mary's of an evening, as I am tempted in to try the incredible food she makes. Without Lily's, I might avoid picking up a takeaway from St. Mary's, as all I know of is the Fish&Chip shops.

This small independent business has a lot to offer the island, offering a delicious dinner options to both hard working locals and the many tourists that visit us here on the Scillies.

Therefore I ask you to join me in supporting Lily's Thai Takeaway.

Yours Faithfully,

Grace Moody
