To whom it may concern,

I am writing to you regarding the Thai food van "Lily's Takeaway" situated on Holgate's Green, St Mary's.

This is Lily's passion. Her food is homemade, authentic Thai and English fusion food. As I have come to know Lily over the past couple of years, she has been an asset to St Mary's, working tirelessly and contributing her time, effort and can-do attitude just like many people living there. She now has an opportunity to do what she loves, cooking food for everyone around her and I think she deserves this chance.

Food vans are a brilliant way to have accessible food especially for the Isles of Scilly as there are limited options if people want to dine out. As someone who visits the islands every year, I am grateful for different food choices when I wish to enjoy an evening out.

Thank you for reading my email, I am excited to see Lily's van when I next visit.

Kind regards
