To whom it may concern,

I am deeply upset to hear that people have been negative towards venues such as Lily's Thai van on Holgates Green, St Mary's.

As a resident of Tresco there are very slim pickings for eating out, with an option of two venues. St Mary's on the other hand has the opportunity to offer a wide variety of eateries including takeaways. As an off islander, heading down after work to grab a takeaway and do a Co-op shop makes the weekly shop into a lovely evening out for all of the family. Especially having the option of oriental food vs fish and chips.

I'm sure you would agree that whilst there are always pros and cons to everything, the pros greatly out way the negatives in this situation. Providing a local couple no with an income whilst creating an enjoyable experience for locals and tourists alike is a fantastic opportunity and one the council should be supporting.

I hope you make a decision in the favour of the local community and opt to accept the planning for Lily's van to receive a permanent position on Holgates Green.

Many thanks
