Site Description and Proposed Development

The application site is located within the grounds of Tresco Abbey Garden on the island of Tresco. The existing property is a detached cottage, known as Valhalla. It is home to the Valhalla Museum, which faces into the Abbey Gardens and the rest of the property is split into an ancillary flat and a two storey house.

The proposal is to make a minor material amendment to planning permission P/21/108/HH which was determined at Full Council on 17th February 2022. The committee report can be found here:

The planning permission granted is to remove a number of previous extensions and alterations to the rear (west) elevation and replace these with a single storey extension and two dormer windows. This approval included a proposal to install a private swimming pool.

The amendments being applied for under this application are listed below and are considered to be minor material in nature as there are changes to the proposed appearance of the dwelling but the floorspace and bulk is not being increased:

- Flat roof dormer window design to replace gable/pitched design resulting in reduced bulk and height
- Minor adjustment to the position of the extension wing
- Changes to fenestration to accommodate revised internal layout (window and door designs on ground floor in extension and the original dwelling)
- Other minor internal and external alterations to the proposals

Considerations under Human Rights Act 1998 and Equalities Act 2010: The provisions of the Human Rights Act 1998 and Equalities Act 2010 have been taken into account in reaching the recommendation contained in this report.

In discharging their functions, must have “due regard” to the need to:

- a) Eliminate discrimination, harassment, victimisation and any other conduct that is prohibited by or under the Act;
- b) Advance equality of opportunity between persons who share a relevant protected characteristic and persons who do not share it; and
- c) Foster good relations between persons who share a relevant protected characteristic and persons who do not share it.

Having due regard to the need to advance equality of opportunity between persons who share a relevant protected characteristic and persons who do not share it involves having due regard in particular to the need to:

- a) removing or minimising disadvantages suffered by persons who share a relevant protected characteristic that are connected to that characteristic;
- b) take steps to meet the needs of persons who share a relevant protected characteristic that are different from the needs of other persons who do not share it
- c) encourage persons who share a relevant protected characteristic to participate in public life or in any other activity in which participation by such persons is disproportionately low.

Whilst there is no absolute requirement to fully remove any disadvantage the Duty is to have “regard to” and remove OR minimise disadvantage and in considering the merits of this planning application the planning authority has had due regard to the matters set out in section 149 of the Equality Act 2010.
